Terms of Service

Participation Waiver: By agreeing to these terms of service for South East Edmonton Seniors Association (SEESA), I acknowledge and agree to the terms of the activity waiver and terms of service as outlined below.

I, the member, recognize that the activities, programs, events, classes, clubs, and services provided, sponsored or organized by SEESA that I will be participating in may have some inherent risks. I knowingly and voluntarily assume the risks of engaging in these activities.

I acknowledge that it is my responsibility to be aware of the risks associated with the activities and to safeguard my person by ensuring that:

1. I am physically able/capable of the activity;
2. I exercise safety measures appropriate to the activities I engage in and;
3. I do not participate beyond my capabilities.

I understand that SEESA endeavors to provide the best possible leadership and instruction for the activities that I join. I acknowledge that SEESA organizes activities, programs, events, classes, clubs, and services only and does not necessarily possess any special skill or knowledge in relation to any of the activities. I hereby release SEESA from any liability arising out of my participation.

I understand that SEESA is not responsible for any personal property that I bring into the building and grounds.

Personal Information Update: I understand that it is my responsibility to maintain up to date membership records concerning my contact information. I will also notify SEESA when there is a change to my emergency contact information.

COVID-19 Compliance: SEESA continues to align its COVID-19 compliance with the City of Edmonton and Alberta Health Services. Members and facility patrons are required to comply with the required guidelines when visiting SEESA and participating in activities, programs, events, classes, clubs and services. Failure to do so can result in refusal of program admission and/or a facility ban.

Refund Policy: SEESA is a non-profit organization. The fees that are collected online or in-person are used to pay for the contractors, program, and activity expenses, and for the cost of space. No refunds or credits will be given for memberships, programs, presentations, clubs, tours, special events or fitness centre transactions unless cancelled by SEESA.

Code of Conduct

To cultivate a supportive environment on SEESA premises, at any offsite activity organized by or related to SEESA, or in any communications among or about participants, all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. For this reason, Participants agree to:

1. Read the SEESA Code of Conduct and abide by it.
