Behind the Scenes: SEESA's Board Members & Their Lasting Impact

As SEESA celebrates 45 years of community and connection, it's the perfect time to recognize the passionate and dedicated individuals who have guided our journey from the very beginning: our Board Members.

From shaping our vision to steering SEESA through times of growth and challenge, our Board has played a vital role in building the vibrant, welcoming organization we know today. These are the leaders who bring voices to the table, ask the tough questions, and make the thoughtful decisions that keep SEESA thriving for current and future generations.

What Our Board Members Do:

- Strategic Leadership: Guiding SEESA's mission and long-term planning
- Governance: Ensuring accountability, transparency, and good governance
- Financial Oversight: Helping ensure financial health and sustainability
- Advocacy: Representing SEESA in the broader community
- Support & Stewardship: Working hand-in-hand with staff and volunteers to grow programs and services

Real People, Real Impact:

Our board is made up of volunteers from all walks of life — who are members themselves — who share a deep love for the SEESA community and a commitment to ensuring it's sustainability. Whether they're leading policy discussions, organizing fundraisers, or volunteering at events, their impact is woven into every success SEESA has achieved over the past 45 years. Without their tireless behind-the-scenes efforts, SEESA wouldn't be the strong, inclusive, and community-focused organization it is today.

Thank You to All Past & Present Board Members:

As we reflect on our past and look to the future, we offer a heartfelt thank you to every individual who has served on SEESA's Board of Directors. Your dedication and service have helped shape an organization that uplifts thousands — and your legacy lives on in every program, meal, and friendship SEESA makes possible.

Retir'ed teacher heads seniors

Tillie Poulson's head is brimming with ideas for the South East Edmonton Seniors' Association.

Mrs. Poulson is the new president of the organization, succeeding Colin Groff.

"We want to bring more educational programs in," she said. "A lot of seniors are really interested in knowing more about things."

One of the ideas she has for the centre, located at 9350 82nd St., is an outreach program.

"We'd be getting, for instance, policemen to come in and give us lectures on self-defence and making ourselves 'invisible' as well as home security," she said.

The centre would also bring in public health nurses to give talks on nutrition and health and French courses might be started.

Mrs. Poulson is a retired teacher. She taught for 35 years until retiring as principal of St. William Catholic School two years ago.

"When I started to teach in a country school, I was teacher, caretaker, you name it," she recalled.

Mrs. Poulson said the centre will also expand its social activities, with bi-weekly dances planned.

She hopes to increase membership to 1,000 from the present 340.

She said the association plans to hire a coordinator, who will be paid from a grant received from the city.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE ----- by Bob Cole

Are you like me -- wondering where our summer has gone? It just seems it was a few weeks ago - I put out my flower plants and today - they are covered with snow... I notice the stores have their Christmas Cakes out already - I wonder what happened to our fall season.....

The Executive and Board have been busy working on the Centre's budget for 1985. We hope by careful planning of purchases this fall and a Centre Improvement Fund for 1985, we will be able to look after and not return any surplus we will have at the end of this year.

It is nice to see all our programs in full swing again and I'm pleased to report we now have over 790 paid memberships (total for 1983 = 785)

We still plan to recognize those who took part in the Camrose Games , our biggest problem is to get all the people who took part together at one time.

We are contemplating purchasing an electronic organ to enhance our musical talent. We would appreciate someone volunteering to play this organ. If you can help us - please contact me soon.

Sincerely, Bob Cole

Finding New Purpose in Retirement – Why Wendy Doughty Joined SEESA

When Wendy stepped away from the fast-paced world of work, she wasn't simply retiring—she was transitioning. Like many retirees, Wendy found herself asking, "What's next?" For Wendy, the answer came in the form of SEESA, a vibrant community where connection, opportunity, and purpose come together. Retiring didn't mean she wanted to slow down, she just wanted to direct her energy into something meaningful. At SEESA, she discovered more than just a place to spend time—she found a welcoming environment that allowed her to be her authentic self. "People are genuinely happy to see you here", Wendy says. "It feels like coming home."

What drew Wendy to SEESA was its promise of both learning and fun. Whether it was trying a new art class, joining a volunteer group, or striking up conversations with fellow members, she quickly realized this was a place built on connection. It gave her the opportunity to meet new people, forge friendships, and explore new interests.

Wendy's journey with SEESA began in 2021 when she signed up for her first class—Essentrics, a dynamic fitness program. Through conversations with fellow members, Wendy learned that SEESA was facing serious challenges.

Motivated to make a difference, she stepped up when asked to join the Board of Directors—and not long after, was elected President, a role she proudly continues to hold today. Wendy also began volunteering at the popular SEESA Rummage Sale in her first year at SEESA, where her eye for detail and enthusiasm for community soon led to the role of Team Lead for Jewelry. By 2023, she had taken on even greater responsibility as Co-Chair of the Reuse Sale alongside Eloise Cameron. SEESA continues to provide new adventures for Wendy. In 2024 Wendy began teaching a free fall prevention course and in 2025 she joined the Accidental Drama group.

"Retirement is not just about staying busy," she explains. "It's about doing something that matters, with people who care." For those stepping away from work and looking for what's next, Wendy has simple advice: "Find a place where you can still grow, give back, and be yourself. For me, that place is SEESA."

MELODY SINGERS SPRING CONCERT - ROCKIN' THRU THE AGES

The SEESA Melody Singers returned to the SEESA stage on Sunday, May 4 for another excellent Spring Concert. The show this year, "Rockin' Thru The Ages", took our listeners through various decades of popular music, with the crowd nodding and singing along to many familiar songs, including some fun medleys. Special thanks to all of the choir members themselves, and their musical director, Brad Heintzman, for the many hours they put in to prep for this show.

Also, thank you to all the additional volunteers who contributed in various ways to help make this sold out show a success! After the show, over 150 people from the audience and members of the choir stuck around to enjoy a baked good and beverage during the after show social. We look forward to the Melody Singer's Christmas Concert in December, 2025!

REFLECTING AND LOOKING AHEAD: SEESA'S ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Last month, SEESA hosted its Annual General Meeting (AGM), bringing together members to reflect on the past year and look ahead to the future. It was a meaningful opportunity to share program highlights, financial updates, and community insights while celebrating the progress we've made together.

The AGM served as a time to connect, exchange ideas, and reaffirm our shared commitment to SEESA's mission.

We are deeply grateful to everyone who attended, asked questions, and contributed to shaping the direction of our organization. Your voices, support, and enthusiasm continue to inspire everything we do. Thank you for helping us build a stronger, more connected community.

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION

Following SEESA's AGM on Wednesday, April 23, everyone was welcome to head to Tillie's Cafe for our annual Volunteer Appreciation event where we celebrated the invaluable contributions of all our SEESA volunteers. The theme this year was to "Celebrate our SEESA Celebrities." There were plenty of snacks, treats, and beverages to go around, a fun photo booth with goofy props, a slideshow, door prizes, and a red carpet to walk down. Thank you to Carrie from In Your Face Photobooth for the excellent photos, as well as Holyrood Pharmasave for sponsoring our photobooth. And thank you again to all our volunteers for their hard work this past year in their many different roles—we couldn't do it without you!
